Acknowledgments

The development of TESL Ontario’s Competency Framework has been made possible through funding by Ontario’s Ministry of Labour, Training and Skills Development (MLTSD).

The Project Consulting Group provided ongoing professional insight to the development of the Competency Framework. Members include:
Sven Greve
David Hazell
Claudia Petrescu

Additional consultation input was provided by Accredited TESL Training Providers and by administrators and teachers in college, university, school board and private school Adult English as a second language training programs.

Reza Mazloom-Farzaghy, TESL Ontario’s Accreditation Manager, and Renate Tilson, Executive Director, have provided ongoing feedback that has contributed to the purpose and development of the Competency Framework.

Introduction and Guiding Principles

The TESL Ontario’s Competency Framework identifies the categories of competence and the competencies required of qualified adult English as a Second Language (ESL) teachers in Ontario. The framework describes the key knowledge and skills required for effective adult ESL teaching in Ontario. To support the importance of competency frameworks, in a report by Canada West Foundation, Match-up: A Case for Pan-Canadian Competency Frameworks, researchers indicate that current Prior Learning Assessment & Recognition (PLAR) processes should expedite the matching of skills and jobs. Occupational approaches to conferring certification, registration or accreditation tend to be based on credentials and not on recognizing or assessing skills and competencies.

In preparation for the development of TESL Ontario’s Competency Framework, the Competency-and-Credit- based PLAR Project implemented a multifaceted research approach. The research included:

<table>

Purpose
The Competency Framework was developed to support the new TESL Ontario’s Competency-and-Credit-based PLAR process. As specified by the Canadian Association for Prior Learning Assessment\(^2\) (CAPLA), fair, valid and reliable assessments are essential to any quality Recognition of Prior Learning process. All quality Recognition of Prior Learning processes require outcomes or competency statements that reflect what is required of a qualified PLAR applicant and are easy to understand.

Framework Approach
Based on all research conducted during the Competency-and-Credit-based PLAR Project, six categories of competence have been identified. Each category includes subcategories and competency/performance statements that identify knowledge and application required to meet competencies.

Categories that have been established in consultation with TESL Ontario for the new Competency Framework include:

1. Adult Language Learning
2. Language Theory and Methodology
3. Instructional Design and Delivery
4. Digital Literacy
5. Assessment
6. Professionalism

TESL Ontario’s Competency Framework can also serve as a:

1. Clear guideline for developing TESL training programs
2. Resource for development and delivery of targeted workshops for internationally trained professionals (ITIs)
3. Resource for development of mentoring, practice teaching and observation activities
4. Tool for teachers to self-assess and articulate their own skills and competencies and to consider further professional development
5. Guideline for employers for hiring and for professional development of teachers

Organization of Framework Standards

Framework standards have been structured to include Competency Categories with a Competency Statement, Subcategories that further distinguish specific elements of each category, Knowledge Statements that define what applicants need to know to meet subcategory competencies and Performance Statements that describe the requirements a qualified PLAR applicant or adult ESL teacher in Ontario needs to have in order to meet competency standards.

Competency Statement

Teachers understand the uniqueness of each adult learner (education, life experience etc.) and consider the individual perspectives and needs of learners in all teaching activities.
Language Theory and Methodology

Competency Statement

Teachers are familiar with models of communicative competence and understand the linguistic, psychological and socio-cultural factors affecting adult learning.

Glossary of Terms

A

Affective Domain
Includes constructs such as attitudes, values, beliefs, opinions, interests and motivation.

Assessment
A systematic approach to assessing the (language) ability of a student. This can be done by test, interview, questionnaire, observation etc.

B

Be familiar with
To have some knowledge about and some experience in the use of something.

C

CAPLA
Canadian Association for Prior Learning Assessment. CAPLA is the national voice for the recognition of prior learning (RPL) in Canada. Members include adult learners, PLAR practitioners, researchers, employers, labour organizations, academic and training institutions, government, occupational bodies, settlement and integration organizations, NGOs (non-governmental organizations) and industry councils.

Categories of Competence
General areas of competence required of qualified teachers, which are specified by statements of competence.

CELT A
Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages. An initial teacher training qualification for teaching English as a second or foreign language. It is provided by Cambridge English Language Assessment through authorized Cambridge English Teaching Qualification centres. CELTA was developed for both teaching English as a foreign language and teaching English to the speakers of other languages.

CLB
Canadian Language Benchmarks. The Canadian Language Benchmarks consists of a 12-point scale of task-based language proficiency descriptors used to guide the teaching and assessment of English as a second language learners in Canada.

Cognitive Domain
The area of learning that deals with the processes and measurable results of study, as well as the practical ability to apply intelligence.

Communicative Competence
Includes grammatical competence, discourse competence, sociocultural competence and strategic competence.

Competency
A demonstrable skill and knowledge that a teacher is expected to apply when practicing his/her profession.

Competency Framework
A competency framework is a document that identifies the skills needed to effectively perform a job or profession. The main goal of a competency framework is to clearly identify and communicate the skills employees need to effectively conduct their work.
Competency-based PLAR
A process of recognition of teacher qualifications based on their demonstrated competency in categories of knowledge and skills required of a qualified adult English as a second language teacher.

Competency Statements
Represent what teachers need to know and be able to do in order to teach effectively.

Comprehend
To grasp the nature, significance or meaning of something.

Digital Literacy
Digital literacy refers to an individual’s ability to find, understand, evaluate and compose clear information on various digital platforms.

Domain
Domains focus on general categories of competence. Domains frame standards for TESL Ontario Accredited Training Programs and Certification.

EAP
English for Academic Purposes. These prepare students for formal education.

Educational Technology
The study and ethical practice of facilitating learning and improving performance by creating, using and managing appropriate technological processes and resources. Educational technology is an inclusive term for both the material tools and the theoretical foundations for supporting learning and teaching.

ELP
English Language Proficiency.

Ethics
Rules or standards governing the right conduct of a person or members of a profession.

Exit Demonstrations
CLB 5-10 Exit Assessment Tasks is a national validated language assessment (workplace, academic and community contexts).

Formative Assessment
A formative assessment takes place during learning and is intended to provide guidance that contributes to further learning.

Framework
A structure in which categories and statements of competency are located.

Identities of Learners
Identities of learners may include parents, workers, citizens etc. as well as the broader demographics of gender, age and life experiences.

Intercultural Communication
Ability to understand, communicate and effectively interact with people across cultures in a variety of roles or contexts.

ITI
Internationally Trained Individuals (sometimes called IEPs, or Internationally Educated Professionals).
Kinesthetic Learning
Or tactile learning, is a learning style in which learning takes place by students carrying out physical activities rather than listening to a lecture or watching demonstrations.

Language Structure
Includes reading, writing, listening, speaking, pronunciation, grammar and vocabulary.

Learner-centred Approach
Actively engages students in the learning process. Learner-centred teaching includes determination of learner needs, learner-based skill instruction and communicative interaction among learners.

LINC
Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada (LINC) is federally funded language programs for teaching English.

Linguistics
The scientific study of language and its structure, including the study of morphology, syntax, phonetics and semantics. Specific branches of linguistics include sociolinguistics, psycholinguistics and applied linguistics.

Modalities
Modes of teaching and learning delivery – face to face (classroom), mixed modality (combined face to face and online delivery) and online delivery.

Multilevel
Multilevel classrooms include students who communicate in English at a variety of different levels.

Needs Assessment
A systematic process for determining and addressing needs or "gaps" between current English language proficiency of learners and desired learning outcomes for a particular program level.

OCelt
Ontario Certificate English Language Teacher. The accreditation and professional designation recognizes that a certificate holder has the knowledge and skills required for teaching English to adult learners in all publicly funded and private programs in Ontario, other Canadian provinces and territories, and abroad.

Outcome
A specific, measurable description of what teachers should know and be able to do.

Outcome-based Assessment
Assessment designed to evaluate achievement of intended outcomes; determining if students have the skills and knowledge they were expected to gain.

Para-verbal
Refers to how we say something; tone, pitch, volume etc.
PBLA
Portfolio-based Language Assessment. PBLA is the Canadian standard for publicly funded LINC and ESL program delivery and required content in all TESL Ontario Accredited TESL Training Programs and Certification.

PD
Professional development (PD) refers to continued training and education regarding teaching English as a second language. The goal of PD is to keep the teacher up-to-date on current trends as well as to develop new skills for the purpose of advancement in the field.

Performance-based Standards
Standards that focus on demonstrable skills, knowledge and attitudes that teachers are required to exhibit.

PLAR
Prior Learning Assessment Recognition (PLAR) is based on a tested process and set of mechanisms for the recognition of learning that has been acquired from life experience, job training, workshops, seminars or other experience. The term Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is also sometimes used.

Portfolio
A collection of documents and other evidence compiled by the PLAR candidate that demonstrates tangible proof of learning and reflection on the learning.

Practicum
Classroom-based instruction, tutorials and classroom observation.

Pragmatics
The study of how language is affected by the situation in which it is used, of how language is used to achieve things or perform actions, and of how words can express things that are different from what they appear to mean (Cambridge Dictionary).

Professional Identity
A number of specialty areas available for qualified teachers: workplace specific, employment, occupation specific, literacy, Test Preparation, ESL/EFL for International students, LINC, EAP, workplace training.

Professional Development
See PD above.

Professionalism
The knowledge, attitude and skills required to successfully meet occupational responsibilities. These behaviours define a teacher’s professionalism and reputation in the field.

Psychomotor
The relationship between cognitive functions and physical movement. Recognize To realize the nature of something.

Reflective Practice
Ongoing professional learning and reflection, through collegial discussion, action research, and dynamic interaction with learners in order to evaluate and challenge teacher’s own developing practice and better meet the needs of learners.

Rubrics
A set of rules, descriptions, guidelines or benchmarks that describes different levels of performance and is used to determine an individual’s outcome or grade.

SAM
Summative Assessment Manual (SAM). This is a national, validated assessment process for CLB benchmarks levels 1 to 4.
Sociocultural Competence
Understanding the social rules of language use and the ways that cultural context affects the meaning of what is said or written.

Strategic Competence
Refers to the ability to get one's meaning across successfully especially when problems arise in the communication process.

Summative Assessment
Takes place at the end of a stage of learning to assess what has been learned.

Task-based Approach
Focuses on the use of authentic language and on completion of meaningful tasks. Assessment is primarily based on task outcomes (the appropriate completion of real-world tasks).

TESL
Teachers of English as a Second Language. TESL refers to Teaching English as a Second Language programs in English-speaking countries for students whose first language is other than English.

TESL Ontario Accredited OCELT Training Program
TESL Ontario accredited OCELT training programs include at least 250 instructional hours, 30 hours of observation and 20 hours of supervised practise teaching. The training can be completed on a full-time or part-time basis. The delivery modes are in-person, online, blended and distance education.

TESL Ontario Accreditation Standards Committee
This committee supports TESL Ontario in establishing and advancing accreditation standards and providing consultation on accreditation-related initiatives and issues. The volunteer members are recruited from TESL Ontario membership.

TESL Ontario Code of Ethics

TESOL International Association
An internationally established professional organization for teachers of English as a second or foreign Language.

Theories of Adult Language Acquisition
Adult learning principles and theory of adult English as a second language acquisition.

Understand
To have thorough knowledge or technical familiarity with or expertise in the practice of something.

About TESL Ontario

TESL Ontario is a non-profit organization serving the needs of English language training professionals in Ontario.

TESL Ontario is also an accrediting agency providing accreditation to practitioners and programs in the field of language training.

Vision & Mission Statements

Vision Statement
To inspire professionals and learners through our role as a leading authority on English language education.

Mission Statement
To provide support and direction to professionals, government bodies, and industry stakeholders involved in English language education.
